

FEATURES

Italy's 20 hottest hotels and villas

Hideaway for two? Party pad for everyone you know? We have your accommodation options all mapped out

Mia Aimaro Ogden Published: 18 January 2015

Hotels

6. San Fantino, Campania

6 For getting away from it all: San Fantino, Campania Only a donkey's heehaw could wake you in this remote stone farmhouse, now a simple seven-room hotel in the beautiful Cilento National Park, south of Naples. They're all about wellbeing and sustainability here, but it's less scratchy sackcloth and hemp seed, more fine Venetian linen, fresh lobster and the sweetest homemade olive oil. Kundalini yoga and Thai massage are available every day, as well as guided foraging, wild-orchid spotting and mountain treks; you can also hop onto a fishing boat in the harbour, to take you to those tiny beaches the natives keep shtoom about.

6. San Fantino, Campania